

AAAE Retired Life Membership Award Criteria & Nomination Instructions

The purpose of the American Association for Agricultural Education (AAAE) Life Membership is to recognize retiring AAAE members in recognition of long-term dedication toward the achievement of the AAAE mission and goals.

Eligible AAAE members are those who have retired since the last annual conference or will be retiring during the upcoming year, before the next annual conference; and have paid their AAAE dues for the three years prior to retirement.

To receive Life Membership status an individual must be nominated by fellow AAAE members and approved by the AAAE Board of Directors

Identify below AAAE Members who qualify for AAAE Life Membership.

Name	University/College	Date of Retirement

Nominated by _____

Nomination should be saved as a pdf file and electronically submitted, via email, no later than February 6th.

For questions and submission, contact:

Dr. Michael Newman
AAAE President
mnewman@humansci.msstate.edu
662-325-2950